Amy McCready
Union High School Assistant Principal

Amy McCready received her Bachelor's of Science degree from the University of Nebraska in Lincoln, Nebraska. She received her Master's in Education with an emphasis in Sports Management from the University of Kansas in Lawrence, Kan., and her Administrative Certification from the University of Missouri in Kansas City. McCready is currently writing and researching the dissertation portion of an Educational Leadership Doctoral Degree at Oklahoma State University in Tulsa.

Before coming to Union in 2006, McCready was at Blue Valley Northwest High School in Overland Park, Kansas, for 13 years, where she taught math 9th thru 12th grades. She also worked as an Assistant Principal at Blue Valley Northwest from 2005-2006. McCready came to Union to serve as director over Union's spirit programs and was named an assistant principal at Intermediate High School in 2009. She became assistant principal at the Union Alternative School in 2011.

While in Kansas, McCready served as the Blue Valley Northwest Math Curriculum Chair for five years where the math staff under her leadership earned and was awarded the State Standard of Excellence in Kansas.

Prior to coming to Union, McCready was recognized as the 1999 October Teacher of the Month, 2000 TeenInk Honorable Mention Educator of the Year and 2004 Top Dawg in Teaching. She also served as the Husky Invitational Wrestling Tournament Director for 12 years, and for three years she served as the Jim Draper Basketball Classic Tournament Director. McCready's interests include spending time with her husband, Matt McCready, who is Union's Director of Fine Arts, and with friends and family. She also enjoys playing trumpet, piano, reading, and traveling.
