

Union Public Schools

JoAnna Jamison
Director of Adult/Community Education

JoAnna Jamison joined Union in 1995 to assume the responsibility of developing Adult and Community Education programming for the school district. Prior to joining Union, Jamison was employed by the Metropolitan Tulsa Chamber of Commerce as the executive director of the Literacy Coalition for Metropolitan Tulsa.

Her other experience includes coordinating the Tulsa City-County Library Literacy Organization, serving on a university faculty which focused on instruction in children's literature, consulting for a national volunteer literacy organization and serving as a K-8 school media specialist.

Jamison has a bachelor's degree from Oklahoma State University in family relations and child development and a master's degree in library and research science from the University of North Texas. She has also completed extensive postgraduate and professional development course work in all areas of adult education.

Jamison serves on the Tulsa Area Workforce Investment Board and Youth Council, and on the Muskogee Youth Council. In 2010, she received the Governor's commendation for business driven leadership given to Oklahoma's Workforce Development System. Jamison is also active in Oklahoma professional organizations focusing on Adult Education initiatives, past-president of the Oklahoma Adult Basic Education Association and the Oklahoma Literacy Coalition. She has also been a National Technical Assistant for Adult Literacy.